Death/Loss

Good Grief Book and Workbook

Granger E. Westberg

Good Grief has helped millions of readers find comfort and rediscover hope after loss. It identifies ten stages of grief--shock, emotion, depression, physical distress, panic, guilt, anger, resistance, hope, and acceptance--but, recognizing that grief is complex and deeply personal, defines no right way to grieve.

Grieving With Hope

Samuel Hodges & Kathy Leonard

This book is packed with short, biblically based, topical chapters addressing the issues those who are grieving face, but are often hesitant to mention to others. It helps readers accurately interpret the message their emotions are sending them and gently guides them to determine whether they're grieving in a way that leads to hope and ultimate healing.

God's Healing For Life's Losses

Robert W. Kellemen

Experiencing Grief

H. Norman Wright

A Grace Disguised

Jerry Sittser

While most of us will not experience a catastrophic loss in our lifetime, all of us will taste it. And we can, if we choose, know as well the grace that transforms it. A Grace Disguised plumbs the depths of sorrow, whether due to illness, divorce, or the loss of someone we love. The circumstances are not important; what we do with those circumstances is. In coming to the end of ourselves, we can come to the beginning of a new life—one marked by spiritual depth, joy, compassion, and a deeper appreciation of simple blessings.
